Light and airy freestanding 1940s timber home on a long corner block with a rear lane in a happy well-established community. Plenty of room to extend or perfect to move right in. Generous rooms including a master bedroom with extra-large robes. Charming period features include stained timber floors and internal woodwork, deco cornices, and ceiling roses. Renovated bathroom and full-sized renovated kitchen with quality fittings and appliances. Additional sunroom with ample built-in cupboards and a storage shed. Two split-systems. Separate laundry, with a 2nd toilet. Structurally sound, and thoughtfully restored to keep all its old-world charm with contemporary twist. Lush leafy outlooks and private no-mow paved back garden, abundant fig and lemon trees, and ready-to-plant vegetable boxes that double as garden seating. This garden is great for entertaining. Plentiful unrestricted street parking right next to the house. Desirable position on a bike track & close to lively cafes, shops, schools, Sydney Rd, walking distance to train, bus, and tram stops nearby.
