This beautifully renovated four-bedroom home, complete with all the stylish touches of a modern home, is ideally located in the Inner North suburb of Hackett. There is a large balcony that runs along the front of the home to enjoy that sunshine or watch the sunset. The location means it's great for nature walks and trails into the reserve and close to the Dickson shops, Hackett shops, schools and ACU. The lounge and dining rooms have polished wooden floorboards with large windows to let the light flood the room. The kitchen is spacious and modern with a fantastic gas cook top and a dishwasher. The kitchen boasts stone bench tops, ample storage and an island bench. There are three bedrooms up stairs two with built in robes. The master bedroom is complete with an ensuite. The main bathroom is spacious, with a separate bath and shower. The fourth bedroom is located under the house with polished wooden floors and an ensuite for convenience, this has the potential to be an office or a teenagers retreat. The home is kept comfortable all year around with ducted reverse cycle air-conditioning and heating. The back yard is landscaped and has large deck to entertain the guests or just to enjoy that well-earned coffee break. There is also a double car garage.
