Nestled in the heart of The Gap, this expansive residence beckons with its promise of space, flexibility, and timeless charm, making it an ideal haven for growing families. Boasting a sprawling 26-metre frontage and an enviable position overlooking Corra-Mulling Park, this home seamlessly merges indoor comfort with outdoor serenity. Elevated to capture picturesque district views, it offers a sanctuary where character meets convenience. With its blend of spacious interiors, outdoor allure, and unbeatable location, this property embodies the epitome of family living in The Gap. Step inside to discover a haven of comfort, where split system air conditioning and ceiling fans ensure year-round enjoyment. With five bedrooms and three bathrooms, this residence effortlessly accommodates the larger family, offering ample space for everyone to thrive. The generously sized kitchen provides not only practicality but also a hub for culinary creativity, boasting abundant cabinetry for storage needs. Convenience is at the forefront of this property's appeal, with its proximity to quality schools, lush parklands, charming cafes, and efficient city transport. Enjoy leisurely strolls to The Gap Shopping Village or take advantage of the nearby express city transport for effortless commuting. For outdoor enthusiasts, Brisbane Forest Park beckons with its panoramic views, scenic walking trails, and exhilarating mountain biking tracks—all just moments away. Families will appreciate the array of educational options within reach, including Hilder Road State School, St Peter Chanel Catholic Primary, and The Gap State School. Meanwhile, the nearby Gap Village Shopping Centre caters to everyday needs, while city bus services on Waterworks Road ensure seamless connectivity. - Situated in a great location of The Gap- Boasting Character and Charm- Split system air conditioning and ceiling fans- Overlooking Corra-Mulling Park- Bike path into the city at the end of the street- Quiet Culdesac- The Gap shopping village is nearby- Close to local state and private schools Call to inspect with Leanne Burns today!
