Cornering Kent Grove, timeless mid-century architecture in such mint condition is often sought, yet rarely found. Well zoned & sized even by today's standards, the original gated & terrazzo tiled entry offers just a taste of the character filled designs of the era. Glorious natural light from lush front gardens frames the expansive living room for a peaceful outlook. The immaculate retro kitchen is complemented by all the hallmarks of the era, in perfectly maintained fixtures & fittings concluding with a meals zone for casual dining. The bathroom & powder room have a 60s vibe with the style & size of yesteryear, complemented by a shower over bath & immaculate one of a kind tiling. The spacious main bedroom has built-in wardrobes, further enhanced by two fitted bedrooms. With solid construction, fantastic possibilities & an unmatched locale near many private & public schools, local shopping strips, Caulfield Park, family friendly amenities. Add a secure garage off Kent Grove, ducted heating, split systems, big laundry, plenty of storage & more to complete this very desirable residence.
