Discover this three-bedroom weatherboard cottage on a large block nestled in the small town of Sandford. Whether you're seeking the peaceful rural lifestyle or aiming to add to your investment portfolio, this property has something for everyone. The 9,385m² of land is the real drawcard, providing occupants with plenty of space for animals and hobbies. Additionally, a double carport and a two-bay shed provide plenty of storage for vehicles and equipment. Inside, you'll find a large main bedroom, gas heater, air conditioner, and one bathroom (with the toilet and laundry in an extended/external section of the home). Just 5km from Casterton which is home to schools, health services, the Glenelg River, shopping, dining, and sporting facilities. Get in touch today for more details!
