Only 3 minutes from the town of Goomeri is the chance to own your personal slice of paradise. Surrounded by established gardens is 9.2 acres of former grazing land with plenty to offer. Sit on the large front deck and watch as the world passes by. The 4 bedroom home is constructed just off the ground to catch the cooling breezes with a side ramp access for those weary legs on big gardening days. With a new cooker and warming fire, it is family comfortable. When the entire family is about you can enjoy a quiet one in the covered area out back. Outbuildings include 2 container storages with Council approved skillion covering on which is the 6.6kw of solar power, large greenhouse (or convert to stables) bird aviaries and chook pen. Plenty of established gardens, including citrus orchard. Water is from 5 tanks, 2 dams and attachment to the Kinbombi water supply line.
