Privacy, proportions and a fantastic swimming pool and sun terrace with private access for residents are amongst the compelling credentials that merge to create this peaceful Armadale haven. Elevated and full of natural light, generous proportions define the interior spaces where vast windows provide private leafy outlooks and a welcoming sense of space. The lounge room presents plenty of space for relaxing and dining, serviced by a well equipped kitchen. Two sizeable robed bedrooms share the main bathroom and ample storage completes the floorplan. A premium position just moments from Malvern Central, thriving Glenferrie Road and Malvern station underscores this ultra convenient proposition, complemented by secure allocated parking. Walk everywhere from this premier location or make the most of excellent transport links nearby. High Street, Armadale is an easy stroll away, a brilliant selection of local parks and gardens are within close proximity and Monash University, Caulfield is a short drive away.
