Prepare to be captivated by this elevated three-bedroom apartment with city views that effortlessly combines spacious contemporary accommodation with unbeatable convenience. Nestled just moments away from Armadale's vibrant boutique shopping strip, trendy cafes, and excellent public transport, you can step out your front door and pick your destination of choice. Beyond the wide hallway, the north-west facing living space boasts generous proportions that invite you to indulge in the utmost comfort and style. The addition of elegant plantation shutters adds sophistication and charm, creating a tranquil haven to retreat to after a long day. Picture yourself enjoying the breathtaking sunsets from your west-facing balcony, complete with remote operated external sun shades for added light control. With stunning city views as your backdrop, every moment spent here will feel like a private escape. The separate kitchen with tiled dining area features plentiful storage, stainless steel dishwasher and gas cooktop. With three bedrooms with built-in robes to choose from, two with city views and an over-sized main bedroom, versatility is at your fingertips. The modern and nicely finished bathroom is not only a place of relaxation but also includes laundry facilities for your convenience. The separate toilet adds an extra touch of practicality. Stay cozy year-round with the convenience of ducted heating and air conditioning throughout the apartment, ensuring an inviting ambiance no matter the season, while a lock-up garage and security entrance add further convenience.
