In the vibrant suburb of Richmond, nestled within a quiet leafy, gated community, this modern three storey townhouse offers the perfect balance of tranquillity and inner city living. Whether you like to run, ride, row or relax you'll find something for everyone just moments from your doorstep. Inside the home quality finishes are paired with high ceilings and gleaming timber floors to deliver a bright and contemporary retreat. The functionally designed kitchen, accented with stone benchtops, Miele appliances and designer pendant light, overlooks the open plan dining and living area with wi-fi controlled, reverse cycle air conditioner and adjoining balcony. The master bedroom offers a private ensuite and double built-in robe whilst a generous second, double robed bedroom, perfect for teenagers, housemates or guests, is serviced by the central bathroom. On the ground floor, an open space ideal for a study or second living area, extends out onto a timber deck and enjoys direct access to the garage with ample storage and European laundry amenity. Adjacent to the Yarra River, Richmond Park and Royston Hotel, located in the Melbourne Girls College zone, within easy access of public transport and Melbourne CBD and just minutes from the multitude of iconic shops and restaurants lining Bridge Road, a stroll around the neighbourhood will have you sold!
