Expressions of Interest A best in block rear position ensures this stylishly renovated first floor apartment enjoys peace, privacy and a superb sense of independence. One of six that define immaculate "Amaroo", glorious sunshine and leafy outlooks fill every room of this delightful two bedroom retreat, creating an idyllic lock up and leave home just a short walk from vibrant local cafes, transport and leafy Back Creek Reserve parkland. Cleverly combining original charm with modern contemporary function, a fully equipped kitchen features classic shaker cabinetry, stone benchtops and breakfast bar, matching the timeless style and quality of an elegant contemporary bathroom with laundry facilities. A generous living and dining domain retains its vintage personality in elevated ceilings, built in display storage and feature windows that, in addition to offering leafy tree top views, provide access to a balcony perfect for coffee catch ups or warm evening cocktails. Two oversized bedrooms with excellent built in robes include the main with a wall of extensive robes/storage with further highlight including panel heating, split cooling, bamboo flooring and the apartment luxury of a remote tandem garage. From this blue chip position, walk to trams, trains, excellent local schools and childcare options with easy access to Camberwell Junction, Leo's Fine Foods and the Monash Freeway.
