In arguably Melbourne's most exquisite garden-side pocket of the Domain Precinct, this two bedroom Art Deco apartment offers a lifestyle immersed in tranquillity as it embraces inner-city convenience. With an ideal position on the top floor and north-west corner of this well maintained c1930 boutique block of only nine, the entrance delights with its library-esque character, opening beyond petite French doors to the light-filled living domain. With comfortable proportions and defined space, the living area enjoys leafy views, whilst the dining area captures beautiful northern sunshine. The kitchen is spacious, wonderfully bold, and appointed with Miele appliances including dual ovens, ensuring your culinary skills can shine, with the convenience of laundry provisions set within its superb cabinetry. A private landing off the kitchen (not on Title) provides a quiet space to enjoy a sunset drink with city views. A central bathroom services two double bedrooms with built-in robes, with great storage throughout including in the attic space. Merely metres from Fawkner Park and a short distance from the Royal Botanic Gardens, getting around is easy with bike lanes and trams at your fingertips, South Yarra Station nearby, and the lifestyle offerings of Toorak Road and Chapel Street ready for your exploration.
