Attain a slice of north facing affordability with this solid brick one bedroom first floor apartment. First time on the market in over 45 years, this well built abode shapes up to be an excellent long term investment or shrewd way to get your property journey started with an ability to add value down the track. Beyond a security door entry, this traditional 60s apartment enjoys a welcoming foyer leading into the generous living area, a sizeable original kitchen/meals area with Chef stove, a north facing bedroom with built in robes and a classic ensuite bathroom with laundry facilities. Ready to be lived in or let out, it's got the necessities of gas heating and parking. In this quiet residential street, a short stroll to Murrumbeena Village's fine choice of cafes, grocers and restaurants, the train at Murrumbeena station - just two stops to Monash University Caulfield, Springthorpe Gardens, Boyd Park and the bus to world famous Chadstone - The Fashion Capital.
