Designed for a low-maintenance lifestyle, this desirably located residence set privately within an established and picturesque setting offers space and convenience for a couple, young family, or even the downsizer. A thoughtfully designed layout includes open plan living, dining and fully equipped kitchen with ample storage options. This bright and light filled space is perfect for entertaining family and friends, leading directly to an established private courtyard creating a relaxed outdoor entertainment area for year-round enjoyment. Generously proportioned master-bedroom offering a full ensuite, and 2 additional rooms that are serviced by a central, modern bathroom and separate laundry. Completing a very appealing package, secure double lock-up garage, ducted heating, split system cooling and newly renovated to present as new, this stylish home ticks all the boxes. A convenient and central location, an easy walk to local shopping, schools and transport makes it a location hard to beat. Private inspections are now available, Please contact Peter Di Giorgio on 0439 250 995 to arrange a time to inspect.
