Maximising space and natural light the stylish interiors have been carefully renovated with bespoke features and quality finishes, the combined living areas have defined lounge and dining areas that flow to the sunny balcony, allowing for easy living. Quality timber floorboards have been installed in all common areas with the bedroom having loop pile carpeting, both double bedrooms have custom wardrobes providing ideal storage. Enjoy the manicured garden entrance and updated common areas of the sought after 'St Malo' building, with security intercom and level lift access from the undercover parking and storage cage straight to your apartment. Truly a turn-key property with nothing left to do but enjoy.
