Indulge in a secure, refined and low-maintenance lifestyle with expansive views from this naturally well-lit apartment nestled in the heart of Brighton, right at the doorstep of Bay Street's lively café and retail hub. Situated on the second floor of one of Brighton's iconic heritage buildings, this charming apartment is part of a uniquely elegant boutique group of seven residences. The spacious Northwest facing terrace provides sweeping views over rooftops and the bustling street below. The apartment offers convenient access to North Brighton railway station, internationally recognised Brighton beaches and Royal Brighton Yacht Club, walking tracks, golf and tennis clubs and a variety of private and public schools. Beautiful oak floors lead from the entrance through three bedrooms to the open-plan living and dining areas. This generous space features ample built-in storage, study nook, and bi-fold/sliding doors which open to the garden terrace making the entertainment areas perfect for casual al fresco dining or simply relaxing. Whether it's the streaming sunlight in winter or the refreshing evening breeze in summer, the apartment is naturally comfortable all year round. The gourmet kitchen, adorned with stone benchtops and Smeg appliances, overlooks the lounge, meals area and balcony, facilitating easy, informal entertaining. The primary bedroom, boasting a pristine ensuite and walk-in wardrobe, opens to the balcony that extends from the front along the entire side of the apartment. Two additional bedrooms with built-in robes and balcony access share a well-appointed central bathroom. Other features include a laundry, zoned heating and cooling, video intercom entry and secure parking with storage, making this timeless Bayside residence a perfect blend of comfort, style and sophistication.
