Dream home sites in the Whitsundays are becoming hard to find and we feel this stunning 1479sqm block will be very popular. Offering beautiful sunrise and mountain views to the east, the ocean to the north and stunning sunsets to the west, from this elevation you have a beautiful view from most positions on this land. Surrounded by prestigious homes within the Hayman Views Private Estate, you will be among good company in this well presented community. All town water and sewer services are available to the block in addition to power and phone connectivity. Owners within this private estate have full access to the tennis court and enjoy coming home each day to manicured landscaped gardens throughout this estate. The Whitsunday Plaza Shopping Centre and Whitsunday Christian College are positioned within a very short walking distance making this a very attractive location for families. This is a great opportunity that should not be missed, contact sales agent Adam Webster from Ray White for more information.
