Fully renovated, with a positive feeling of natural light and generous space, this pristine villa unit offers the perfect lifestyle for both the busy professional or the astute investor alike. Within walking distance to both Gardiner and Tooronga train stations, No. 72 Malvern Road Tram, Malvern Road cafes and restaurants, and close-by to Glenferrie Road Malvern shopping village, Tooronga Village and Monash Freeway access. Upon entering your new domain, you will be inspired by the open plan living, generous indoor kitchen, meals, and living area with sliding doors leading onto a sun-drenched deck and courtyard garden where you can socialise with family and friends over a BBQ or relax with a quiet coffee or glass of wine. The two generous bedrooms with built in robes and a stylishly renovated central bathroom provide excellent accommodation within this very workable floorplan. Additional features include, split system heating and cooling, brand new carpets, quality ILVE kitchen appliances, an abundance of storage, automatic garage and additional off-street parking. The lifestyle and convenience is a key factor in your decision making here with your new home only moments from public transport, bike tracks, shopping precincts, freeway access and all that leafy Glen Iris is so famous for.
