Soaked in north sun, steps from the sand and a stroll to the village, this two bedroom, first-floor apartment offers a golden life...with all the appeal of the golden age of mid-century design. Set quietly to the rear of this notable 1960s group, this stylish home shines with tall-windowed living facing north to all-day sun, a wide water view at the door and a sneaky glimpse inside! Representing a remarkable entry to beachfront life with a sleek stone and European appliance kitchen set within the open plan, this brilliant apartment shines with vintage detail & fresh style. Designed for easy living with a quality bathroom (with a full bath & separate shower) zoned with the lofty robe-fitted bedrooms, this reverse cycle air conditioned apartment stars a new all-white paint scheme, deep cocoa-stained hardwood floors, & streamlined blinds. Retaining the lofty proportions & high ceilings of its time, this landmark group is set in well-maintained surrounds well maintained grounds complete with carport parking. No more than 100 steps along the cliff top to the path to the sand & a little over 2 blocks to Village shopping, this mid-century marvel has the station within a minute, the CBD within a 31 minute rail commute, and all the benefits of beachfront life and village-edge lifestyle at the door!
