KPSR are proud to present this impeccably renovated brick home in the heart of Nickol. This property seamlessly blends contemporary comfort with low-maintenance, easy living. The thoughtfully renovated interior comprises three bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom, all flooded with an abundance of natural light, creating an inviting and refreshing atmosphere. The kitchen has been newly renovated with ample storage space for a clutter-free cooking environment. The renovations extend to the bathroom and laundry too, embracing neutral tones and natural light. Rest assured you'll be enjoying year-round comfort with newly installed split system air-conditioning units in every room, adapting effortlessly to your preferences. Security is paramount with the introduction of new security screens to all windows and external doors, enhancing safety and reinforcing a sense of security. A practical store room under the main roof adds convenience, offering additional storage space for belongings. The well-established gardens, both front and rear, have been meticulously landscaped for minimal maintenance and space to run around. The single carport not only provides shelter for your vehicle but also features lockable storage at the rear, offering a secure space for those Pilbara camping toys. Versatile side access through a lockable gate enhances the functionality of the property too, perfect for additional parking or creating your own private oasis. Ideal for families or investors, this residence combines a versatile layout and modern amenities. The option of vacant possession further adds to the allure, providing the flexibility for immediate occupancy and a swift transition into your new chapter.
