Nestled in the corner of a quiet and peaceful complex you will find yourself relaxing on the balcony enjoying your morning coffee whilst listening to the birds from the adjoining nature reserve of Ben Bennett Park. This 3 bedroom townhouse has been designed for the modern family - your own private parents retreat is upstairs with main bedroom and ensuite, kitchen and living area, whilst your kids occupy downstairs with 2 bedrooms and the main bathroom. The backyard offers loads of potential with established trees and lots of room to add an outdoor entertainment area or playing equipment for the kids. Although tucked away at the end of a cul-de-sac you are still within easy access to all of the amazing facilities Caloundra has to offer with major shopping centres, local state and private schools, cafes and our famous beaches all within a 5 minutes drive. This property has had a long term tenant for over 10 years so the perfect addition to your investment portfolio or a great entry level property for those starting the great Australian dream.
