A rarity amongst apartments, with its indoor/outdoor entertaining aspects, this apartment is located in a boutique complex of only 12 apartments that is both modern and bright. Tasmanian oak flooring is throughout the property, with the living space leading out to the very generous and private courtyard, a great space for entertaining family and friends. The functional kitchen is fully appointed with stone benchtops, Bosch appliances, gas cooktop and adjoins a large dining space. Two carpeted large bedrooms both have BIR, serviced by a spacious bathroom and the euro laundry provides great storage. The home is well suited for all buyers looking to downsize, entering the market or expanding an investment portfolio. All this while offering a central Ringwood location that has everything at your fingertips, including Eastland, Costco, Ringwood Train station, Eastlink & located in the Ringwood Secondary school zone. The location is also adjacent to Mullum Mullum walking trail & enjoy the convenience of choosing to be in the city or the beauty of the Yarra Valley & its wineries within 30 minutes. Extras include: S/S air-conditioning, garden shed, secure parking & lift access.
