Embracing single-level living on a glorious 2-hectare parcel of land, this homestead is what 'country in the city' lifestyle dreams are made of. Almost every room steps out onto the covered wraparound veranda for seamless indoor/outdoor living and entertaining. Three separate kitchens allow for self-contained living and the ability to set the home according to your needs. Accommodate multiple generations in style while being surrounded by lush greenery and enjoying access to an inviting pool. There is also an enclosed pond and exciting options for making use of the huge lot. (STCA).The home is characterised by generous proportions, light-filled interiors and understated elegance. It showcases a neutral colour palette with sumptuous finishes and inclusions. Car enthusiasts will relish the oversized garage and workshop. Teens will love the rumpus room.Beautifully presented and move-in ready with scope to add your personal touch if desired, it's central to all the rural attractions of Terry Hills and Duffys Forest, the harbour delights of Bayview and Church Point, the café culture of Mona Vale and Sydney's glorious Northern Beaches. Swim, ride horses, play golf or shop at a Westfield all within a 20 minute drive. Council rates $1,306 approx pq
