Apartments built in the 1930's have always been cherished for their style, high decorative ceilings, generously proportioned rooms, and this apartment offers all that and more in a sublime Royal Park locale close to every amenity your heart could desire. Comprising formal entry hall, sizeable master bedroom with built in robe, large 2nd bedroom that would put most new apartments to shame, elegant lounge/dining with slow combustion fireplace, updated kitchen/meals with provision for front loader washer/dryer, lock up garage and the convenience of second entry/exit. Features include panel heaters throughout, polished timber floors and easy access to a vast choice of eclectic eateries, bars, restaurants & cafes.
