Seek solace in this stunning townhouse, where the charm of Burleigh Heads eagerly awaits! Positioned merely a leisurely 1-2 minute walk from the bustling James Street, featuring world-class restaurants, trendy boutiques, bars, and local farmers markets bustling on weekends. Immerse yourself in the delightful atmosphere of Burleigh, with the patrolled beach, the iconic Burleigh Pavilion, and the breathtaking Burleigh Head National Park all conveniently within walking distance. This meticulously updated townhouse showcases a contemporary aesthetic, featuring beautifully polished wooden floors that effortlessly sweep away sand from a day at the beach. Its airy living space is accentuated by clean white style ceilings, flooding the area with natural light. The kitchen, fully stocked with modern amenities including stone benchtops, electric cooktop and oven, and a brand-new dishwasher, provides all the necessary tools to prepare delicious meals for yourself or entertain guests, with ample space on the large stone benchtops for serving. Use the stairs to go to the second floor of this townhouse, where you'll discover two cozy bedrooms, generously sized to accommodate king beds if needed, complemented by built-in wardrobes featuring mirrored doors. The master bedroom boasts a secluded balcony facing north, providing sun-soaked vistas all day long. Both bedrooms are equipped with air conditioning, allowing you to adjust the temperature to suit your preferences for optimal comfort, regardless of the temperature outside. This residence is nestled in a small community of only 8 units, ensuring both privacy and security. Its exterior boasts a timeless brick-style design and a charming front lawn. Despite its central location, the townhouse provides a serene escape from the bustling vibe of Burleigh, while still being conveniently close to its attractions. Residents can easily walk to the beach, enjoy world-class dining options, vibrant bars with stunning views, and more. Parking is available for one car in carport space 6.
