Tucked away in a little-known pocket bordering the beautiful Botanic Gardens, this freestanding two-storey townhouse is a true hidden gem. Impeccably presented and instantly appealing, it's safe to say that townhouse living has never looked more attractive than it does here! Not only does the home showcase house-like proportions, its modern interiors are bathed in glorious sunshine, and the privacy you'll experience here is priceless. Without a doubt though, the real highlight here is the picture-perfect outlook over the Botanic Gardens you'll have from nearly every room, and the feeling of exclusivity and tranquillity that accompanies it. A wonderfully low maintenance and infinitely picturesque lifestyle awaits you here, with the added convenience of being only a quick drive to Bowral's many cafes, restaurants, clothing boutiques, and homewares stores.

- Light-filled and sun-soaked living, boasting designer finishes and a spectacular outlook
- Stunning gas fireplace radiates a beautiful ambience in the large, elegant lounge room
- Separate dining room is ideal for dinner parties, while a casual meals area is also available
- Gorgeous mosaic tiles and sleek stone benchtops feature in the contemporary gas kitchen
- Perfectly private alfresco terrace and an incredibly easy-care garden add to the appeal
- Master bedroom with a walk-in robe and ensuite is located downstairs, as is the study/ 5th bedroom
- Three further bedrooms and a sitting area are placed upstairs and enjoy elevated views
- Main bathroom, master ensuite and guest powder room all reflect a pleasing modern style
- Stylish plantation shutters feature throughout as does ducted heating and cooling
- Secure double garage with internal entry to the home; good sized laundry with storage
- Offering extreme appeal to downsizers as well as those looking for a fabulous weekender
- Positioned next to the Botanic Gardens, with walking and cycling tracks on your doorstep
