Footsteps to the powder soft sands of much-loved Birdrock Beach in the exclusive "Royal Sands" development, you will be utterly impressed by the lifestyle that awaits. This recently renovated three-bedroom townhouse sits directly opposite the foreshore, offers a perfect opportunity to secure an enviable position in Mount Martha. With Tasmanian Oak timber floors and sleek finishes, this impressive fully renovated home includes open plan living and dining areas and a spacious kitchen complete with European stainless-steel appliances, engineered Caesarstone bench-tops and ample storage. A private courtyard with sliding door access presents the ideal outdoor retreat to relax and entertain. Featuring a splendid master bedroom with walk-in robe, semi-ensuite and elevated glimpses of Port Phillip Bay to the West, plus a further two large bedrooms with built-in robes. This light-filled abode is located in a highly sought-after beachside locale with everything the Peninsula has to offer on your doorstep. For those looking for a luxury coastal and low maintenance property, this is the ideal home for you.
