This oversized two-bedroom apartment is positioned in the quiet end of Bayswater Road within a graciously restored Art Deco building. This imaginatively redesigned spacious one-bedroom is of the proportions of a two-bedroom apartment, combining light airy spaces with quality finishes. Enjoying stylish modern open plan living with a tree-framed outlook from your adjoining loggia, this opportunity is fantastic for those wanting a highly individualised apartment in a desirable lifestyle location. Occupying a rear wing position in The Alexander, a superbly updated classic Edwardian security building, offering both quiet privacy and immediate proximity to the buzz and excitement of Potts Point. The apartment features polished timber floors, high ceilings, modern gourmet kitchen with stone finishes and mirror splash-backs, designer bathroom, queen sized master bedroom, plenty of built-in storage including internal laundry facilities, sunroom with bi-fold solid glass windows. Located in the heart of Rushcutters Bay, this property is surrounded by an array of amenities. Take a leisurely stroll to the nearby parks, cafes, and restaurants, or enjoy a picnic by the bay. With easy access to public transport, you can effortlessly explore the vibrant city of Sydney making this an ideal first home or investment.
