Nestled beneath a verdant canopy of trees, this charming three-bedroom apartment is sure to leave a lasting impression. Occupying a coveted position on the first floor of a magnificent art deco building, this home is one of only six residences in the tightly held block, complete with its private lock-up garage. Inside, you'll be greeted by stylish timber flooring and rustic accents, including intricate cornices that add character throughout. The aspiring chef will be delighted by the gleaming, well-appointed kitchen, featuring top-of-the-line appliances and tiled splashbacks. Meanwhile, the airy and inviting living area provides a serene haven for relaxation. Three generously proportioned bedrooms offer ample space, with the master bedroom boasting a cozy fireplace and electric wall heater, and the third bedroom enjoying its own secluded spot with a private deck. These bedrooms are all serviced by a chic central bathroom. Positioned in the heart of Armadale, this residence combines tranquillity with convenience. Enjoy easy access to renowned cafes, boutiques, and parks, with excellent transport links nearby for seamless connectivity to Melbourne's CBD.
