Just metres from lively Union Road cafes, shops and city transport, this sunlit two bedroom first floor apartment is a real find. A light and airy ambience highlights spacious living zone enjoying westerly views. A neatly adjoining kitchen/dining area presents modern counters, timber-fronted cabinetry and electric appliances. There are two private bedrooms, including an extra-large main. Both enjoy built-in-robos and split-system air conditioners. A central bathroom includes bath/shower, vanity, storage and laundry function. Features separate toilet, split-system air conditioning/heating, foyer entry and undercover car space on title. Boasting a quiet rear aspect, in a block of only seven, it's close to Puckle Street, trams, Ascot Vale station, Highpoint and schools.
