Stylishly updated throughout, this well-presented villa unit boasts an unmissable opportunity for first homebuyers, astute investors, or downsizers seeking a low maintenance living option close to a range of desirable amenities. The home which attracts an abundance of natural light boasts two bedrooms; each is generously proportioned and shares the use of a sizeable central bathroom. There is a substantial living room with an open fireplace that features a striking timber mantle and feature wall, and a separate kitchen-meals area that has been renovated to offer stone benchtops, subway tiling, a modern upright cooktop-oven, and an array of storage options. Outdoor living has also been well-considered, with an undercover alfresco dining area featuring concrete aggregate and adjoining a grassed yard framed by gardens. A number of additions add further appeal. These include gas heating, split system heating and cooling, decorative cornices, a full-sized laundry, a storage shed, a double carport, and a location that ensures convenience is paramount. You're close to all that central Bayswater offers, including the train station, local buses, shopping precincts like Mountain High Shopping Centre, Marie Wallace Bayswater Park, the Dandenong Creek Trail, plus a number of popular cafes and restaurants. To fully appreciate this wonderful property, inspect it without delay.
