Indulge in the quintessential bayside lifestyle in this solid-brick apartment set on the top floor of a boutique block of 12 and enviably located mere steps from the water's edge. The living and dining room offer a generous setting to relax or enjoy the company of friends. The adjoining balcony is framed by treed outlooks that are shared by a window in the central hallway. From the comfort of the kitchen, let the St Kilda Marina and bay views serve as your inspiration when cooking. At the front, the two bedrooms with built-in robes feature water vistas. The bathroom is neatly appointed with a combined shower and bath, plus the added convenience of integrated laundry facilities. A hallway cupboard, panel heating, secure intercom entry, and a designated covered car space are additional comforts. While immediately liveable, the apartment holds promise for those looking to infuse it with their personal style. Potential renovations could include exploring the possibility of transforming the kitchen and living area into an open and inviting contemporary space. The location is a beach lover's paradise, being a walk away from Acland Street, buses on Barkly Street, St Kilda Botanical Gardens, and Elwood Village. Not to mention, you're at the gateway to expansive beaches that for leisurely strolls, energetic jogs, scenic bike rides or simply soaking up the sunshine.
