An idyllic escape awaits for families at this quiet cul-de-sac, delivering space, style and comfort. Blissfully serene and private, the split-level residence is framed by gorgeous gardens and a peaceful bushland outlook. Adding to the relaxing ambience of this leafy setting is a stunning entertainment terrace and pool. Embrace the wonderful lifestyle on offer, while conveniently moments from shopping, schools and Metro transport. Opening to a contemporary interior streaming with natural light, the home's neutral décor is complimented by bamboo flooring. The multi-zoned living areas include a front lounge and a separate lower-ground floor family rumpus. Generously sized, the stone-topped kitchen is fitted with stainless steel appliances and an abundance of storage including a large corner pantry. Bi-fold servery windows provide a connection to the outdoors. Entertain or recharge on the sundrenched travertine terrace overlooking the glass-framed sparkling saltwater pool. An additional covered area allows the space to be used year-round. Beautifully landscaped with sandstone retaining walls and established trees – including a magnificent palm – the rear garden offers something for everyone. Pet and youngster-friendly, families will appreciate the space on offer with rolling lush lawns. A sauna is a bonus inclusion. Three bedrooms are located on the upper level, all with built-in wardrobes and treetop outlooks. Double built-ins and an updated ensuite feature in the master retreat. The luxe family bathroom has also been renovated with a free-standing soaker tub and frameless glass shower. The fourth bedroom is located on the entry-level and is also suitable as a home office. This meticulously presented property is an unmissable opportunity for families looking to upsize their space and lifestyle. Zoned for Samuel Gilbert Public School, it is also within a short drive to Oakhill College and The Hills Grammar School. Surrounded by quality homes in a tightly held cul-de-sac, it is less than 10 minutes to both Castle Hill and Showground Metro Stations. Offered for the first time in two decades, this fabulous sanctuary is perfectly appointed for family life. - Four bedroom split level family home set on a large 1101sqm- Quiet cul-de-sac setting, coveted location, front veranda- Split-level design with flexibility, seamless outdoor flow- Automatic double garage with internal access- Loft storage area/workshop space/off-street parking- Wide side access with the potential to store caravan/boat- Energy-efficient heat pump hot water system- Ducted air-conditioning, internal laundry- Less than five minutes to Knightsbridge Shopping Centre- Less than 10 minutes to Castle Tower and Round Corner Shopping Centre
