This delightful 3 bedroom brick and tile home is situated on a 734 square metre corner block only 1 kilometre from Caves patrolled beaches. The home has been delightfully modernised providing the new owner with the opportunity to move in and enjoy the wonderful location. With schools, shops, public transport and sporting fields all within walking distance from your front door. There is a wrap around verandah with sweeping views towards the ocean, ideal for a drink as you catch your breath after a busy day walking on the beach. Caves Beach has been a favourite with Sydneyites for years due to the easy access to the freeway and the iconic beaches. This home represents opportunity for the first home buyer, retiree and investor alike. The block of land lends itself to the imagination of the new owner, extra garaging, extensions are certainly a consideration. Otherwise simply secure a lovely home in the sought after suburb of Caves Beach at an extremely affordable price.
