There's no need to lift a finger here. This gorgeous beachside home has been renovated from top to toe. It is sure to steal your heart! Inside, modern neutral tones combined with floating timber look floors and big windows create a light, bright, and welcoming atmosphere. As well as having a lovely fresh feel, this home has been thoughtfully renovated to make living easy with an open plan living area, a beautifully updated bathroom, ducted cooling and heating, and a large laundry with built-in storage. The superbly renovated kitchen will satisfy even the most discerning home chef. Cooking will be a breeze with stainless steel appliances, on-trend finishes, and a breakfast bar overlooking the adjacent dining area. The open-plan living and dining room is a welcoming and comfortable place to relax or entertain guests with large windows that let the light flood in. There are three light-filled bedrooms on offer that share the sublime family bathroom featuring a freestanding tub, walk-in shower, and classic finishes. Out the back, the established garden is perfect for kids and pets to play and explore. A garage with a roller door and convenient access to the backyard provides secure off-street parking. This is an ideal opportunity to put your roots down in this up-and-coming seaside suburb! You'll be spoiled for choice on the weekends, with parks and beaches just a stone's throw away. There's no need to compromise on convenience either, with Colonnades Shopping Centre, public transport, and several high-quality schools and childcare facilities nearby. Commuting to the CBD is a breeze - with easy access to the Southern Expressway, you'll be there in just thirty minutes. More reasons to love this home:
