Set on a quiet tree-lined street and enjoying a verdant outlook, this magnificent single level brick Victorian residence boasts a timeless blend of period proportions and characteristics such as wrought-iron detailing, soaring high ceilings and polished timber floorboards, with a contemporary extension offering flexibility in its floor plan, an abundance of natural light from a northern aspect, well-designed stainless steel kitchen, a seamless flow of indoor/outdoor entertaining areas and a private tranquil landscaped terrace and garden. Perfectly positioned in this sought-after vibrant enclave of Armadale, within walking distance of High Street and Beatty Avenue shops and restaurants including Toorak Cellars, Lune Croissanterie and Orrong Hotel, recently re-imagined Victory Park, leading schools, Toorak Station and accessible transport options. Featuring charming front garden with flagstone paving and tessellated verandah, wide entrance hall, formal lounge with open fireplace, kitchen/meals informal sitting room leading to private north-east facing terrace and garden. Two generous bedrooms with built in robes, master with ensuite, main bathroom, laundry, and off-street parking for one car.
