Brimming with cosy charm, this low-maintenance double storey home on a leafy and level 799m² block promises peace, privacy. Deceptively large, step inside and be surprised by the expansive open concept area downstairs. Light and bright, it's a cheerful place to congregate, with a kitchen, living and dining zone complemented by a bathroom/laundry and study nook. Spread out upstairs too with a second living area/rumpus room framed with feature windows to invite the outdoors in. All four bedrooms reside on this same floor along with one bathroom. Tucked away on Dangar Island - the only residential island on the Hawkesbury River - make the most of being a 160m stroll to the Bowling Club and adjacent playground. You're also just a 10 minute ferry ride from Brooklyn where you can feast on local seafood or indulge in a meal from iconic 'Angler's Rest Hotel'.
