Presenting this much-loved family home, going to the market for the first time! Bartlett St being a cul-de-sac majority owner occupied neighbors living there for years. You could be the lucky new owner of this large well-built and maintained property with several extras. Upon entry feel the space, all bedrooms are good size with built in robes. The large lounge room goes through to the spacious kitchen with plenty of work space and storage, dining plus a very large family area with sliding doors to the small patio overlooking the yard. To the left you will love the massive games room complete with bar, the perfect shin dig room easily takes a pool table and lounges there is also a toilet and shower facility making this a room flexible for whatever your family needs. If extra family or friends come to stay or change to another bedroom? Alongside this is another large patio/bbq area, completing the yard is a double shed. With solar panels, air conditioning, security screens, alarm system this really has it all. Contact exclusive consultant Gail Clarkson 0419 945 235 to arrange your viewing
