Auction Location: ON-SITE If you've been looking for a perfectly presented, recently improved property in a slice of Brisbane's hot property market, this immaculate home is ideal for you! With a fabulous new Three-Birds-style renovation, fresh paint inside and out, newly polished floors and window furnishings, simple landscaping (for less upkeep) and a welcoming front verandah; two covered entertaining areas at the rear finish the home to perfection. Perfect for first home buyers, Mungo Scott Park around the corner makes this location as enticing for young families or downsizers with grandchildren who want to stay in the area. Seda Patisserie is another local favourite and boasts the most opulent cakes for any occasion. The Gateway motorway is only a few minutes away, so access to the Sunshine or Gold Coast is ultra convenient. And the proximity to the Airport (only a 10-15 minute drive away) is an added bonus for the frequent traveller! THE FUTURE YOU WILL LOVE . . . + Having your own beautiful universe in which to relax with family and friends + Throwing together impromptu lunches on the back deck + Cooking up a storm in your gleaming white kitchen + Taking long bubble baths in your elegant tub + Having 80m²+ of storage under the house (and it's fully concreted) + Your fully fenced backyard + Enjoying three outdoor oases! + And the large shed that fits two cars INSIDER'S SECRET . . . + Boondall Wetlands and the Shorncliffe Pier are super close for family nature walks
