Piece of Paradise

Need a base while you travel or the perfect position to build your dream home well here is the place. A beach side block of 2992sqm in a prestige suburb. Dundowran Beach is a quiet park residential suburb just a short drive away from the growing city of Hervey Bay. This lovely block with a 15 x 9 mtr insulated shed with lights, power and air-conditioning is completed with bedroom, bathroom and laundry tub. With extra high front roller doors and a side roller door of normal height allows for easy side access. Moments from the beach-side plus a beautiful outlook to a pristine spring fed waterway is all part of the package. There is over 6kw of solar panels, town water and a rain water tank. The enviro sewerage treatment plant is also in place. This property is perfect for those who travel and want a base to come back to or if you're wanting to build your dream home and live in paradise.
