'Telarah' is a grand family manor built c. 1928, surrounded by lush established gardens and a large strata-maintained swimming pool. It maintains its period charm and has been sympathetically updated. Original antique American Oak parquet floors and Oregon Tiger Pine Tudor-style wooden trim. The house boasts its original leadlight windows, mantelpieces and high coffered ceilings. - Large, fresh modern kitchen, two recently renovated bathrooms, one with jacuzzi tub and stained glass windows. Double lock-up garage. - Sunny dining room connects with two large living rooms to form an enormous space for entertaining.- The house has four generous air-conditioned bedrooms; the bedroom on the ground floor has leadlight French doors leading to a sunny terrace. Master bedroom offers city and water glimpses.- Conveniently located in a premier East Drummoyne position that is moments to waterfront reserves, ferry wharf, CBD transport, Drummoyne village and local cafes and restaurants.
