Nestled within a family-oriented community boasting proximity to four quality schools, easy access to the arterial motorway, and a convenient rail system, this area offers unparalleled convenience. Additionally, it's just a short drive to the local Westfield shopping center, making it an ideal location for families. The property features a spacious rear garden perfect for accommodating a trampoline, swing set, and family pet. This family home comprises three bedrooms plus a study, boasting a fully-equipped kitchen with modern stainless steel appliances. The master bedroom includes built-in wardrobes and an ensuite. Enjoy ample family living space along with a separate formal lounge equipped with air conditioning. Abundant cupboard storage is available, along with a separate bathroom and toilet—all within a generously sized, fully fenced yard, perfect for children. The entire house has been freshly painted with newly replaced carpets. Completing the package is a double internal access garage with automatic door openers.
