The escape you didn't know you needed!

6 Dalley Street Byford, let's you appreciate the natural beauty that WA's has to offer! With a brewery, restaurants, trails and more all at your doorstep. Situated just meters away from the base of the Perth Hills, with endless activities and natural bush lands.

This property sits on a 2,112sqm block allowing buyers plenty of space to accommodate interests of all ranges.

This 5-bedroom 2-bathroom property will be the escape you didn't know you needed. This home offers a vast number of natural elements. The kitchen is fitted with jarrah bench-tops and exposed brick walls. The display of visible rustic wooden beams and vaulted ceilings brings character and charm. Snuggle up with your slow combustion wood heater. Make warm vibrant meals while the sound of crackling burning wood warms your home in those winter months.

Not only is this home pleasing but also functional. Spend time together with a naturally lit built in bar and games area. Flow into the open dining/kitchen area then into the lounge area. The lounge space is accompanied with long square pane windows and exposed beams. Head up the wood stairs and relax in the reading area with stunning lighting and geometric ceiling design that let you take in glimpses of your natural backdrop.

With the sheer size of this block, entertaining in the alfresco/garden area will bring a sense of ease and enjoyment to those hot summer nights, and if you're still feeling the heat, unwind and cool off in the spa while looking out to the view of the lush Perth Hills.

You will be spoilt for choice in terms of storage with a large 3 phased powered workshop in the backyard allowing plenty of space for all your tools and toys to be stored safely and away from sight, keeping a clean and open outdoor space.

Not to mention it's impressive, low maintenance well-maintained gardens and breathtaking views. This property will take you away from your work life and place you in a tranquil, relaxing, and peaceful atmosphere that you can proudly call your home.
