Located on Goonellabah's Northern Ridge this roomy brick home could suit many purposes. The open plan living/dining room leads out to an east facing large rumpus room and tiled north facing deck. The kitchen and bathroom were recently renovated and are very modern. Downstairs there are two additional rumpus rooms that could easily be used as additional bedrooms, or ideal for working from home or studio use. The double garage is accessed via two remote controls and there is also another shower and toilet downstairs. The home boasts three air conditioning units, fans and the leafy yard adjoins a public reserve. Land size: 970 m²
