The wow factor hit me as soon as I walk through the front door and looked straight to the outdoor entertaining & pool area. North facing for all year round entertaining and enjoyment. Featuring your side and theirs (the guests & kids) with own living area and access to outside. Large living and dining areas. Kitchen with butler's pantry overlooking the outdoor area and pool. The main bedroom with a walk-in robe through to a showroom ensuite with views overlooking the pool with fountains flowing and pool lights on for the night's ambience. I will let the photos do the talking for the balance of the home. Outside well. . . The shed from heaven with a mezzanine level and moveable stairs, washroom, 3 huge bays with room for hoists plus extra storage. The coolest barn doors separate the workshop/playroom and extra storage from the other bays, just awesome! Everything has a place outside from a dog run, fire drum and grassed area, just all so perfect, to be honest! I love it! You need to walk through inside and outside to fully appreciate the thought and time that has gone into the home.
