Family-friendly in design, radiant with natural light, versatile and brimming with potential for even more, this bright and breezy family abode is a comfortable and accommodating home for your family. Its two-storey design separates the parents' space from the rest, and the study/office can serve as a fifth bedroom, giving you variety and options. The vast rumpus and extensive sunroom combine to provide a delightful hosting experience, and the lovely paved outdoor entertaining space easily lends itself to a covered alfresco area. The yards are established and attractive and the location is an established, cosy, classy and coveted nook of the Prospect area that buyers are clamouring to call their own!

Features:

- Four/ five well-proportioned bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, master bedroom has ensuite access to second bathroom
- Study/office or fifth bedroom
- Bright gas kitchen with stone benchtops, stainless-steel appliances, soft-close drawers and plentiful storage and preparation space
- Dining area off kitchen
- Large living room with balcony access
- Huge rumpus room with space for all indoor recreation activities
- Extensive sunroom
- Internal laundry with space for all linen work, plus storage
- Family bathroom with separate bath and shower, plus second bathroom
- Double garage utilised as a rumpus room

Situated within close proximity to high-quality schools, shopping, all essential facilities and close to M4/M7 motorways and Great Western Highway, Blacktown station and Raging Waters park, this superb opportunity will be noticed.
