There's a home-sweet-home vibe about this meticulously maintained one-owner home, ready and waiting for new happy memories to be made. Clever semi-open design presents a three bedroom home with large formal and casual living spaces intercepted by a well-equipped kitchen. Floating floors complement carpets to create open-style modern flair tinged with cosy comfort. And while it is a low-maintenance 300sqm block (approx), the scenic outlook across to the leafy reserve and the tropical flavour of the backyard entertaining area combine to deliver idyllic outdoor living for families, couples, downsizers and investors. Along with a house that really doesn't put a foot wrong, the location is also second to none. Multiple bus stops are within an easy walk, Munno Para Shopping City is nearby and as for schools - there are plenty! Highlights include: - Original owner north-east facing property built in 2000 - Secure carport with auto roller door - Formal lounge and dining, separate family room - Well-designed kitchen: gas cooktop, breakfast bar, pantry storage - Undercover outdoor entertaining with lush garden surrounds - Light and lovely master bedroom: ensuite, walk-in robe, bay window - Built-in robes to the 2nd and 3rd bedrooms - Central bathroom facilities: powder room, bath and shower, separate w/c - Split system air conditioning - Zoned Blakeview Primary School (500m) - Zoned Craigmore High School (1.5km) - 1.2km to Blakes Crossing Christian College - 1.3km to Trinity College Blakeview Ideally situated for family living, you can walk to school, local reserves and bus stops for a stress-free easy lifestyle.
