FOR SALE

Foambark Court, a tranquil, super quiet cul-de-sac, tucked away in the Country Club Estate. It is easy to see why it is one of the most esteemed streets in Eatons Hill, with homes here rarely coming to the market. And with homes on large blocks like this becoming harder and harder to come by..... here lies a special opportunity to buy into this lucky location. With great street appeal, and space to breathe, the elevated 1342sqm block offers excellent privacy for the family, a stunning green leafy backdrop, and a large grassed front yard, that would be perfect for making a parking area for a large boat or caravan. The well flowing floor plan has much to offer the entire family, featuring up to 5 Bedrooms with good separation, and the spacious open plan living area opens up to entertaining areas on both sides. The recently built covered outdoor entertainment area is stunning, featuring an insulated roof with lighting, and fully fitted with outdoor weatherproof retractable screens, making this area essentially another large living area, perfect for year-round family gatherings. With many special features, and an enviable position, this home is highly recommended and in our opinion a must to inspect, call us today for a private inspection.
