This immaculately presented home showcases a luxurious feel and enjoys a fabulous, spacious design. Featuring an expansive open plan layout which merges the stunning kitchen with the dining and living space, this home is ideal for larger families and those who love to entertain. The main bedroom features a beautiful ensuite plus large walk in robe and three further bedrooms all have built in robes. The delightful, landscaped gardens are low maintenance and there is access through the rear roller door for the storage of jet skis or a small boat. The home further features quality light fittings throughout, solar panels, substantial storage, extra wide garage with custom made roller door and double glazed windows. It enjoys year round comfort with ducted heating and cooling and is in close proximity to the local shops, cafes, St Leonard's hotel and the beautiful swimming beach and award winning wineries are only a short distance away.
