This renovated 3 bedroom timber – framed railway cottage has a brand new kitchen, and an updated bathroom freshly tiled with a new vanity. Newly painted throughout with beautiful polished pine floorboards. It's ready to be lived in and enjoyed. Other features: New cladding, aluminium framed windows, internal blinds, plumbing, HWS, toilet, new tiling throughout, updated electrics, and two reverse cycle split system aircons. It has been connected to the town effluent system. There's plenty of space here. The property is in a quiet position on the edge of town facing a small bush reserve, with rural views. The 820 square metre yard is fenced on two sides, opening onto the bush reserve at the front. The garden is a blank canvas. Peterborough is a friendly well serviced town in the mid north of SA, three hours' drive north of Adelaide. Population is around 1500. It has a rich history, and attracts many tourists. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Peterborough,_South_Australia Peterborough's 'railway cottages' were built in kit form in England in the 1960's, and shipped to Australia.  Property Now is an online real estate company.
