Nestled in the idyllic coastal town of Bicheno, this charming 3-bedroom, 2-bathroom residence offers a harmonious blend of modern living and coastal tranquillity. Positioned in a serene cul-de-sac with an elevated stance, offering views over Diamond Island, Denison Beach and the Douglas Apsley National Park beyond. This home features an airy open-plan living space, a generously sized kitchen, and a dining area that seamlessly extends to a spacious deck—ideal for hosting gatherings or relishing the refreshing coastal vistas. Stay cozy year-round with a heat pump providing climate control. There is ample storage room in the massive under-house storage area, catering to all your belongings. A fully fenced back yard and a double carport for off street parking complete the package. Properties for rent in Bicheno are hard to come by, so get in quick or you may miss out.
